TRIPADVISOR REVIEWS

"Sun, Pool, Perfection!"

Overview: I already miss this place, so that says it all! Nothing but positivity from me about Esmeralda Butik, here are my reasons why...! Staff/hosts: really friendly and clearly love what they do! I believe the main hostess is called Elena (I am so sorry if this is wrong I asked and forgot)! She was very lovely and worked hard along with another really sweet and smiley lady who despite the heat cracked on with the house cleaning etc. Elena (or Elana) had her son help out too which was a lovely touch, gave it that home from home feel with how all staff were with each other and to us guests. Language barrier wasn't expected so much, but it didn't get in the way of us feeling welcome and able to communicate (even if at times it may have seemed frustrating)! Smiles, kind words and a will to help is what we found here, thank you team Esmeralda Butik! Travel: we arranged for a shuttle services from airport Antalya to the hotel. Cost 50 euro I believe, was around hour an half or so as it being a shuttle meant other people (or in our case another person) needing dropping off to their hotel as well. Had a cool box with free water bottles in which was great. The bus service is very easy to work out, the kind shop keeper in the Melisa Market just outside of Esmeralda Butik was always so helpful and had pretty good English. If you have questions hes your guy! He explained where we get the bus from and timings - if you want to go into Manavgat city, walk past Melissa market (supermarket) and go through the underpass to be on the other side of road. The bus comes every 20 minutes, we often walked from Esmeralda on the hour which gave us time to get to the bus and wait for a bit. If you wait in the bus stop bit keep eyes open for the bus that will say Manavgat on the front, you'll need to walk toward it by crossing a quiet road first (you'll see what we mean when you are there) the bus service is really good and the drivers flash you or sound their horn to let you know they are stopping to come pick you up. It is 2 euros per person for a bus ticket into the city, so another 2 euros again on way back. Last bus from Manavgat is 10:40pm (again they leave every 20 minutes) we made sure we got the 10:20pm incase missed the very last one. Takes about 15 to 20 mins to walk to and from the bus station and City centre (feels like a long walk especially in the humid air)! When you get the bus back to hotel, ask if it goes to Kizilot and say stop at Melisa Market 👍 it isn't a long ride, no more than half hour I believe. There are always taxis about so no
